Children’s Museum of Pittsburgh & Pittsburgh Botanical Garden

Reciprocal Membership Program

The Pittsburgh Botanical Garden is excited to welcome Children’s Museum members and provide this outdoor opportunity for our region’s youth. Exposure to nature ignites a child’s curiosity and creativity!

Children’s Museum members receive free admission to the Pittsburgh Botanical Garden every Wednesday until the Children’s Museum reopens in 2021. Limit of 6 tickets per member family, per visit.

To access the Children’s Museum reciprocal admission tickets, use this link:
http://54238.blackbaudhosting.com/54238/tickets?tab=3&txobjid=88a3cf63-d075-44e5-9b0c-1c03e08486b0

Then, use discount code: PGHKIDS

Family activities at the Garden

- Pollinator Trail is a series of interactive pieces co-produced by Children’s Museum of Pittsburgh and Pittsburgh Botanic Garden. Each station features an activity to learn about different types of pollinators and how they live.
- Garden of the Five Senses offers ways to connect with plants through one’s senses. From Digging In to Sniff and Savor, guests will be able to see, touch, taste, smell and hear.
- The Garden has 60 acres of space, perfect to explore the gardens and woodlands. Come explore the changing seasons in the meadow, discover the secrets along the woodland paths, and relax by the Lotus Pond.

Important Things to Know Before Your Visit

Wednesday hours of operation:
Through October 31 – 9:00 am – 7:00 pm
November 1 - December 31 – 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

The last timed ticket is available an hour before closing. A typical visit lasts an hour and a half.

Restrooms are located in the Bayer Welcome Center. There are areas with interactive items, and it is recommended that parents/caregivers bring hand sanitizer. All visitors will be asked to follow the visiting guidelines, which includes masks while indoors.

Visiting Guidelines: https://pittsburghbotanicgarden.org/covid-19/