

The UCLA Center for Social Medicine at the Semel Institute is proud to present
A Comedy Improv Troupe “Shtick Not Shtigma” in

Joyology

We have survived some pretty intense mental health issues.

We consider ourselves fortunate to have made it through.

Since humor helped us recover from these life-threatening illnesses

Now UCLA is bringing us to you Because more shtick means less shtigma!

*Through laughter we'll share our common humanity,
We'll touch your funnybone...*

*And perhaps Maybe even, if we're lucky...
Your heart—*

Encore Performance at 5 PM, Wednesday, January 20,
Semel Auditorium (Semel C8-183)
