

At a Glance

Duke Energy in South Carolina

Duke Energy (NYSE: DUK), a Fortune 150 company headquartered in Charlotte, N.C., is one of the largest energy holding companies in the U.S.

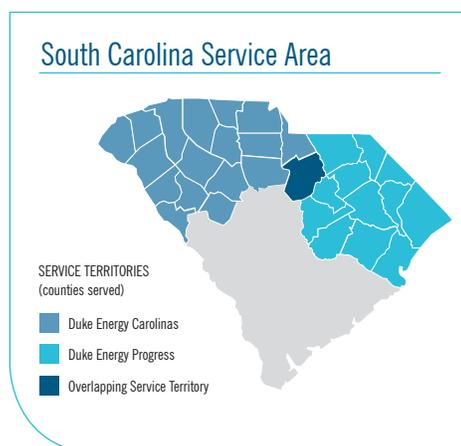

Duke Energy is transforming its customers' experience, modernizing the energy grid, generating cleaner energy and expanding natural gas infrastructure to create a smarter energy future for the people and communities it serves.

The company provides electricity to 7.7 million retail electric customers in six states. The electric service area's estimated population is 24 million people.

The company also provides natural gas to more than 1.6 million customers in five states, and operates wind and solar power facilities in 14 states.

Visit duke-energy.com.

Unless specifically noted, all data is as of Dec. 31, 2018.

For more than a century, Duke Energy has helped build South Carolina communities, attract jobs and investments and keep the state competitive.

While Duke Energy Carolinas and Duke Energy Progress utility operations in the Carolinas will remain separate for some time, what remains at the very foundation of our company is a continued commitment to serve our communities and provide safe, reliable electric service to our customers every day.

- 115 years of service
- 760,000 retail customers
- Six of the company's 11 operating nuclear units located in South Carolina

Across South Carolina

- 6,000 miles of transmission lines
- 36,300 miles of distribution lines
- 11 lakes and more than 1,200 miles of managed shoreline

Palmetto State Employer Involved in our Communities

- Duke Energy's more than 4,400 employees and 4,000 retirees provided 20,000 volunteer hours to projects across the state.
- Through the Duke Energy Foundation, more than $2 million in charitable grants were awarded in South Carolina in 2018.

Economic Development in South Carolina

- Duke Energy powers the region and its economy through significant business recruitment and retention efforts.
- In 2018, Duke Energy helped recruit more than $1.8 billion in capital investment and more than 3,900 new jobs to South Carolina.
- Since 2005, a dedicated team of experts recruited customers with capital investment of over $14.5 billion. Those efforts produced more than 36,600 associated jobs for the state of South Carolina.
- Duke Energy's economic development team continues to be recognized by Site Selection magazine on its annual list of Top Utilities in Economic Development.