thecut Members Don't Get Weary, @alvinailey's newest work choreographed by @jmar82, is described as "a response to the current social landscape in America...an abstract look into the notion of one 'having the blues.'" The dance theater gave us a behind the scenes look at one of their rehearsals, where the choreography was 95% complete. See more of the rehearsal on our Instagram Story. #AlvinAiley 🎬: @emilysundberg
