

Gulfstream Aerospace Corp. Fact Sheet

General Highlights:

Good First Half For Gulfstream Aerospace

1H19

- Delivered 65 aircraft to customers, 25 percent more than in 1H18
 - 50 large-cabin and 15 mid-cabin
- Order activity good across product lines

Company Highlights:

Continued Growth

- More than 2,800 Gulfstream aircraft in service worldwide
 - Up from approximately 2,370 in 2014
- U.S. fleet of approximately 1,800 has grown nearly 20 percent since 2014
- International fleet has grown approximately 20 percent since 2014

G700TM, New Flagship:

Best Features Of G650TM And The G500/G600TM

- Safest, most advanced technologies
- Legendary performance
- Industry's largest interior
- Up to five living areas
- Gulfstream Symmetry Flight DeckTM
- New Rolls-Royce Pearl 700 engines (rated takeoff thrust of 18,250 lbs)

Fleet Overview:

- G280: 180 G280TM aircraft in service
London to Dubai or Shanghai to Singapore at Mach 0.84*
- G550: More than 585 G550TM aircraft in service
London to Tokyo at Mach 0.85*
- G500: More than 20 G500 aircraft in service
Las Vegas to London at Mach 0.90*
- G600: Entered service in August
Las Vegas to São Paulo or London to Los Angeles at Mach 0.90*
- G650/
G650ER: More than 385 combined aircraft in service;
more than 100 city-pair speed records
(G650ER) Moscow to Las Vegas at Mach 0.90*

Customer Support:

Continued Investments For Our Customers

- Opened new maintenance facilities in Appleton, Wisconsin, and Savannah; will open new maintenance facilities in 2020 in Van Nuys, California; Palm Beach, Florida; and Farnborough, U.K.
- More than $1.6 billion in parts worldwide

-