Structural Racism and Health

Structural racism in the United States is a major cause of poor health and premature death from heart disease and stroke. Here is a brief look at anti-Black structural racism since slavery. Structural racism takes a heavy toll on the health of Black people — and also people who are Hispanic, Asian, American Indian or Alaska Natives.

Source: Call to Action: Structural Racism as a Fundamental Driver of Health Disparities: A Presidential Advisory from the American Heart Association
© Copyright 2020 American Heart Association, Inc., a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit. All rights reserved. Unauthorized use prohibited. DS16898 10/20

Structural Racism and Health Diagram