The first City Center season under new artistic director Robert Battle is destined to be, in his own words, “a new adventure.” Approximately 20 works will be presented during the 2011/12 season, including repertory classics by Alvin Ailey, such as Revelations, and Battle’s The Hunt. Along with these iconic works comes an edgier side: Don’t miss the chance to see Minus 16 by renowned American-Israeli choreographer Ohad Naharin, featuring a score ranging from Dean Martin and techno-pop to cha-cha.
