Hey Tim,

If I showed you how our clients are attracting and enrolling 5 new high-ticket group coaching clients and making $25,000 per month (or more) by helping more people on a bigger level, would you be interested?

If so, we should talk.

Go to <http://ninjagrowthstrategies.com/growth/> to book a time to speak with me now.

I've set aside time for the next 48 hours only to speak with a few about how they can get this started now for free.

If you're serious about growing your business and want to know how you can double your revenues while working less and getting even better results for your clients than you do now, grab one of these spots while you can now.

I'm sorry Miranda, I'm really not interested. TBH, I'm sick to death of all the 'high-ticket' BS that's proliferating. I'm not saying this is you, but most of the groups are lead by people who cannot get clients themselves. I'm full all the time and I'm happy only charging an average of $1k per client because I got in this to help as many people as possible, not make as much money as possible.

Tim, sorry to bother you again... My assistant must have neglected removing you from our connections as we do send messages on a regular basis to coaches within my network.

It's wonderful that you are booked and happy with your volume and impact. And PS: The messages are not copied and pasted, they are sent via our automation. If you read them they actually all talk about different benefits and outcomes our clients are getting using the strategies that we use and teach our clients.

I will be removing you from the connections simply because as stated, above you will automatically receive them if I don't. I would love to thank you again for wanting to connect and apologize sincerely for reaching out more than you would like. If you have any questions or would like to contact me directly outside of LinkedIn please feel free to email myranda at ninja.growth.strategies.com. Have a wonderful weekend and congrats again on your success, keep up the great work! Myranda :-)

Now you're emailing me directly! But don't worry you have given me a great idea for a blog post to share with coaches on how not to use Social Media.
