Helping Hands Volunteer Newsletter

March 2024

Volunteer Share, Michelle Peach ;

Future North Cobb SC novelists wrap up the first Write Your Story classes, presented by Michelle , a B.E.S.T. (Broadening & Enriching Seniors Together) Volunteer!

Hallie , Michelle , Carlos and Donna .

Michelle says, “Once I empty nested last year, I had a heartfelt desire to serve the senior community. I started volunteering at North Cobb Senior Center helping out with the library and in the kitchen.

Then I joined the B.E.S.T. team led by Charles Core, the program leader. In this program, I created a writing class for seniors to encourage them to write about their lives as a legacy to their families. I lost my mother two years ago and treasure the notes, short stories, and journals she left behind. The writing class covers information about writing styles and conventions. I also relate my journey writing and publishing my own book. I hope to inspire others to do the same. The class has been a joy especially hearing many entertaining, enthralling and engaging stories from our seniors.”
