Cobb Middle School Students win waterSmart Calendar Contest

Marietta, GA (December 11, 2024) - Cobb County Water System (CCWS) and the Cobb County-Marietta Water Authority (CCMWA) congratulate the winning students of the 2025 Middle School waterSmart waterArt Calendar Contest.

This year's winners are: Angelina D.C. and Ellie P. from Lost Mountain Middle School; Eliza G. (also cover art winner), Emily G., and Steven J. from Dickerson Middle School; Hannah L. from Palmer Middle School; Maddux C. from Durham Middle School; Neo A. and Sara P. from Lovinggood Middle School; Rafaella R.T. from East Cobb Middle School; and Sadie P. and Zaina S. from Simpson Middle School.

Almost 200 students from Cobb County middle schools submitted original artwork, that were judged on creativity, relevance, and artistic ability. All winning artwork is virtually displayed at <https://www.flickr.com/photos/cobbwater/albums/72177720322480972/>. The winning entries are featured in the 2025 waterSmart waterArt calendar distributed throughout Cobb County.

This contest is a collaborative program of CCWS and CCMWA that encourages students to creatively answer the question "How is Water Important to Me?" The waterSmart program initiated in 2000 by CCMWA to educate their service area residents of all ages about the importance of indoor and outdoor water conservation.
