WE GET IMPROVING
E-LEARNING SECURITY.

CDW·G PEOPLE WHO GET IT®

With most learning shifting to an online-only environment, it's school CTOs who have the power to protect student data. And since most teacher and student communication lives online, hackers have a bigger chance of accessing private data. That's why administrators must protect vulnerable platforms from data breaches. Shop the AEPA contract and provide e-learning classrooms with security solutions.
