Project Management Class:
Fundamentals and Best Practices

Black Diamond Charities, in partnership with PMI Chicagoland Chapter and IIT Stuart School of Business, makes a project management training class available to military veterans who want to strengthen their resumes and improve their job skills. Veterans who attend this class will learn how to develop the management and leadership skills they acquired in the military and apply them to projects in the business world through lecture, exercises, and coaching.

Through this class you will:

- Build a project team and develop a unique project scope
- Define the needs and expectations of your stakeholders
- Prepare a timeline
- Develop cost estimates and budgets
- Address quality, communication and procurement issues
- Manage all risks on the project

Veterans will work in teams of ~ six and jointly present their project plan to a management board.

This is a 35-hour course, which will be taught on five consecutive Saturdays, 9AM to 5PM

- Saturday, October 7, 2017
- Saturday, October 14, 2017
- Saturday, October 21, 2017
- Saturday, October 28, 2017
- Saturday, November 4, 2017

Downtown Chicago Location given upon registration – vicinity of Willis Tower and Union Station.

PMI-Chicagoland Project Manager Volunteers will teach the course. Black Diamond Charities will supply all of the materials needed for the course so there will be no cost to the veterans.
