Terms and Conditions | Code Club

Code Club is created with the aim of giving children the chance to learn to code. The purpose of Code Club is to facilitate a network of Club Hosts and Volunteers, provide access to Code Club materials (“Materials”) and attempt to establish standards in relation to the provision of educational coding sessions.

The terms below are mandatory requirements governing access to Code Club’s network and the Materials. However, nothing in them is intended to create an employment, agency or franchise arrangement between you and Code Club.

This document includes the following terms:

- Part A – Club Host Terms. These apply to all Club Hosts, and anyone wishing to act as a Club Host must agree to them;
- Part B – Volunteer Terms. These apply to all Volunteers, and anyone wishing to act as a Volunteer must agree to them; and
- Part C – General Terms. These apply to all Club Hosts and Volunteers, and all Club Hosts and Volunteers must agree to these general terms in addition to the terms governing the specific role undertaken (i.e. Club Host and/or Volunteer Terms).

In most cases, individuals will volunteer to be either a Volunteer or a Club Host. However, we encourage you to read the terms applicable to both roles, so that you clearly understand the relationship between Volunteers and Club Hosts, and the responsibilities and obligations associated with each role.

If you wish to be both a Club Host and a Volunteer, you must agree to all of the terms set out below (i.e. the Club Host Terms, Volunteer Terms and General Terms).

In each case, by agreeing to the terms set out below you are entering into a legally binding relationship with RASPBERRY PI FOUNDATION (Company No. 06758215) trading as CODE CLUB, with its registered address at 30 STATION ROAD, CAMBRIDGE, CAMBRIDGESHIRE, ENGLAND, CB1 2JH (“Code Club” and “we” below). Please therefore ensure that you review the terms carefully.

PART A – Code Club Host Terms

These Terms set out the basis on which you agree to set up and supervise educational sessions for children in relation to computer coding. Such educational sessions will in all cases be delivered by a Volunteer.

1 Your Club Host role

1.1 You volunteer to set up and supervise notforprofit free of charge educational sessions for children in relation to computer coding, such sessions to be delivered by Volunteers.

1.2 You undertake that you will:

1.2.1 comply with these Club Host Terms (as amended from time to time). Please note that Code Club may advise you of any changes to these Club Host Terms by email but, in any event, it is your responsibility to review the Club Host Terms (at <https://www.codeclub.org.uk/terms-and-conditions>) to ensure your ongoing compliance with such terms;

1.2.2 perform such duties as are assigned to you within the scope of what you have volunteered to do; and

1.2.3 comply with all reasonable directions given by the establishment at which you host a club, and/or Code Club.

1.3 You are not entitled to a salary, gratuity, expenses or other payment in cash or kind under these Club Host Terms.

2 Venue

- 2.1 You confirm that you have the appropriate authorisation of the establishment at which you will host a club to set up and supervise educational sessions at that establishment.
- 2.2 You agree that you/another suitable individual will accompany the Volunteer(s) at the establishment at all times.
- 2.3 You are responsible for ensuring that children attending all educational sessions supervised by you are doing so with appropriate parental or guardian consent.

3 Safeguarding

- 3.1 You acknowledge that the activities undertaken by you may be a regulated activity under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 (“SVGA”).
- 3.2 You represent and warrant that you:
 - 3.2.1 are not barred from working with children;
 - 3.2.2 have never been convicted in any jurisdiction of any offence of violence or sexual impropriety against any person, or any offence whatsoever against a child or vulnerable person; and
 - 3.2.3 you are not currently under investigation in respect of any matter falling within clause 3.2.2, and you are not aware of any circumstances that could result in your being investigated, cautioned or arrested in respect of such matter.
- 3.3 You will immediately inform each and every establishment at which you host a club in the event that you become unable to make the representations and warranties at clause 3.2, and you will immediately cease using the Materials, supervising educational sessions and undertaking any other volunteer activities whatsoever.
- 3.4 If a complaint is made about you by a child, parent or guardian in relation to any concerns about your behaviour, you must immediately inform each and every establishment at which you host clubs and Code Club. You should immediately cease hosting clubs until the matter has been resolved to the satisfaction of the relevant establishment and Code Club.
- 3.5 If at any time Code Club becomes aware of any information or circumstances which give rise to reasonable concerns regarding your fitness and propriety to volunteer, it may (without prior notification to you) notify such persons and organisations as it considers necessary, including but not limited to establishments at which you provide educational sessions and appropriate educational and law enforcement bodies.

- 3.6 You confirm that you have read Code Club’s guidelines “Working Safely with Children”, which is available on Code Club’s website at www.codeclub.org.uk/working-safely-with-children.

4 Volunteer vetting

- 4.1 Prior to the delivery of any educational session under your supervision, you must request from each and every Volunteer an original, current and valid enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (“DBS”) check which evidences, as appropriate, that the Volunteer is not barred from working with children. If a Volunteer is not already in possession of such a check, they will need to obtain one and provide this to you. You must be satisfied that such check is satisfactory prior to any Volunteer providing an educational session under your supervision.
- 4.2 You acknowledge that Code Club does not undertake any safeguarding checks or vetting in respect of Volunteers, and that this vetting process is solely your responsibility.
- 4.3 You shall not use the services of any person who is barred from, or whose previous conduct or records indicate that he or she would not be suitable to carry out a regulated activity (under the SVGA), or who may otherwise present a risk to children participating in an educational session.
- 4.4 Code Club provides guidance on getting DBS checks and on the requirements for adults to provide supervised educational sessions to children. Code Club will not be liable if this guidance turns out to be incorrect or misleading or if you fail to comply with its recommendations or those of any third party.

5 Insurance

- 5.1 You must at all times maintain, or ensure that there is in place at each establishment at which you host a club, valid public liability insurance which provides cover for any activities undertaken in connection with supervised educational sessions. Such cover must have a minimum limit of liability of not less than £5,000,000.

- 5.2 You must provide a copy of such policy, on request, to any establishment at which you host a club, and/or Code Club.

 - 6.3.2 perform such duties as are assigned to you within the scope of what you have volunteered to do; and
 - 6.3.3 comply with all reasonable directions given by a Club Host, an establishment at which a supervised educational session takes place and/or Code Club.
- 6.4 You are not entitled to a salary, gratuity, expenses or other payment in cash or kind under these Volunteer Terms.

- 7.2 Prior to providing any supervised educational sessions you must provide to each Club Host on request an original, current and valid enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service

("DBS") check which evidences that you are not barred from working with children. You must provide this document to each and every Club Host with whom you agree to provide supervised educational sessions, prior to providing the initial session at each or any club. For the avoidance of doubt, you are not permitted to provide a supervised educational session until you have provided your satisfactory enhanced DBS check to the relevant Club Host.

- 7.3 In the event that you do not have an existing current and valid enhanced DBS check, you agree to such a check being made against you and will do everything reasonably required of you in order for such a check to be processed including, but not limited to, instigating such check, providing your explicit consent to such a check being made and providing all necessary relevant information. You agree, on request, to provide a copy of your enhanced DBS check to Code Club and/or any establishment at which you intend to provide supervised educational sessions.

- 7.5 You will inform the Club Host, any establishment at which you provide supervised educational sessions and Code Club immediately in the event that you become unable to make the representations and warranties at clause 7.5, and you will immediately cease using the Materials, providing supervised educational sessions and undertaking any other volunteer activities whatsoever.
- 7.6 If at any time Code Club becomes aware of any information or circumstances which give rise to reasonable concerns regarding your fitness and propriety to volunteer, it may (without prior notification to you) notify such persons and organisations as it considers necessary, including but not limited to Club Hosts, establishments at which you provide supervised educational sessions and appropriate educational and law enforcement bodies.

- 7.7 You confirm that you have read Code Club’s guidelines “Working Safely with Children”, which is available on Code Club’s website at www.codeclub.org.uk/working-safely-with-children.
- 7.8 Code Club provides guidance on getting DBS checks and on the requirements for adults to provide supervised educational sessions to children. Code Club will not be liable if this guidance turns out to be incorrect or misleading or if you fail to comply with its recommendations or those of any third party.
- 7.9 If a complaint is made about you by a child, parent or guardian in relation to any concerns about your behaviour, you must immediately inform the Club Host and Code Club. It may also be necessary and appropriate for you to directly inform the establishment at which the supervised educational session is provided. You should immediately cease providing that supervised educational session until the matter has been resolved to the satisfaction of the Club Host, the establishment at which the session is provided and Code Club.
- 7.10 Code Club will deal with any complaints relating to safeguarding issues in accordance with its “Safeguarding Reporting Procedure” which can be found at <https://s3.amazonaws.com/codeclubassets/public/Safeguarding+Reporting+Procedure.pdf>
