Presented by Lawrence and Cho

I Love Math Day

Boston, NCTM Conference, 2015

For additional information, please visit Mr. Lawrence's I Love Math blog:

ilovemathmss.blogspot.com

You will find lots of information on creating your own I Love Math Day, including an approach to the philosophy and the rationale behind Mustard Seed School's approach.

You will also find many resources for good problems to use at grade levels 4 through 8.

Please also feel free to contact Hoyun Cho at hcho1416@capital.edu and Gary D. Lawrence at glawrence@mustardseedschool.org

Finally, please check out our article in Mathematics in the Middle School, April 2015. The article is on pages 499 through 502, entitled Building a Positive Mathematics Community. The article centers on the role of I Love Math Day, and related problem-solving activities, to build an enthusiastic math culture in a school.
