

AFTER YOUR MELT HAND AND FOOT INSTRUCTOR TRAINING

THE BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

Being a member takes your training and your business to the next level, opening up access to continuing education, instructor resources, marketing support, and the welcoming community of MELT instructors. As a member, you also get automatic discounts on products for instructional use and resale. Members gain significant promotional opportunities and the ability to publicize their classes and events on meltmethod.com.

Members also have a unique privilege: While the training gives you the tools to help people live pain free, only MELT members are authorized to teach MELT techniques in a group setting.

DISCOUNTS

Members get automatic discounts – up to 54% off retail – on a wide variety of products for instructional use and resale, including all products available on meltmethod.com. The size of these discounts depends on your level of training. In addition, members are able to retake MELT trainings for more than half off.

MARKETING & PROMOTIONAL SUPPORT

Members get marketing and promotional support for themselves and their classes and events, so MELT can help you grow your business. Customized business cards and professionally printed FAQ brochures are available so you can introduce yourself and your services. In addition to downloadable flyers, class and workshop descriptions, and handouts at no additional cost, you get a personalized listing on meltmethod.com, featuring your name, photograph, and level of training, and the ability to list your classes and events on meltmethod.com

ACCESS & COMMUNITY

Members have exclusive access to continuing education, instructor-only materials, and instructor support. This includes regular member-only teleconferences with Sue; access to the MELT Instructor Support team for operational issues; access to the Instructor Forum for instructor questions and client issues; and networking and collaboration opportunities with other MELT Instructors.

MELT UNIVERSITY TRAINING PATH

The MELT Hand and Foot Instructor Training is your first step on the MELT University professional training path. The next step is MELT Instructor Training, which guides you in the use of the MELT Soft Body Roller. From there, continue with the MELT NeuroStrength series or branch off and discover how MELT can augment your Pilates training. As an instructor member, you'll have access to the full training calendar and be the first to know about the new trainings on the schedule.
