

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: Below is the beginning, middle, and end of "Bug's Stuff." But it is all out of order.

- 1) Cut out each part of the story.
- 2) Place the parts of the story in order from beginning, middle, and end on the next page.
- 3) Glue each part to the next page in order.

Mutt pulls up in a pickup truck.

"I can carry Bug's stuff to the hut by the mud. Jump up and dump all of Bug's stuff in the truck," said Mutt.

"Thank you!" said Bug and Pup.

"I do not know if I can carry my plum to my hut by the mud," said Bug.

"I can carry the plum to the hut by the mud," said Pup.

"Thank you Pup," said Bug.

"Oh no, I do not know if I can carry the tub, duck, rug and plum to the hut by the mud. I have the hiccups!" said Pup.

Bug has to carry a lot of stuff to her new hut by the mud.

"I do not know if I can carry my tub to my hut by the mud," said Bug.

"I can carry the tub to the hut by the mud," said Pup.

"Thank you Pup," said Bug.

"I do not know if I can carry my duck to my hut by the mud," said Bug.

"I can carry the duck to the hut by the mud," said Pup.

"Thank you Pup," said Bug.

"I do not know if I can carry my rug to my hut by the mud," said Bug.

"I can carry the rug to the hut by the mud," said Pup.

"Thank you Pup," said Bug.

The End!

Continue on the next page.

Beginning

Middle

End

