

Name _____

Date _____

Directions: Below is the beginning, middle, and end of "Shark's Teeth." But it is all out of order.

- 1) Cut out each part of the story.
- 2) Place the parts of the story in order from beginning, middle, and end on the next page.
- 3) Glue each part to the next page in order.

"Shark, could you let me brush your sharp teeth if I fed you thirty fish?" asks Mom.

"No! I will not let you brush them for thirty fish," said Shark.

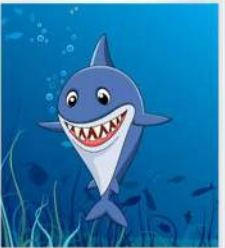

"Shark, could you let me brush your sharp teeth if I fed you three-hundred fish AND a shake?" asks Mom.

"Yes, I will let you brush them for three-hundred fish AND a shake!" shouts Shark.

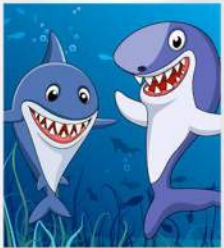

Shark needs to brush his teeth!

"Shark, your teeth are filthy. Could you let me brush them?" Shark's mom asks.

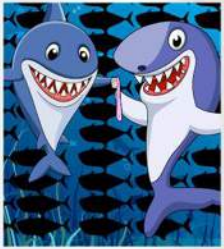

No! I will not let you brush them," said Shark.

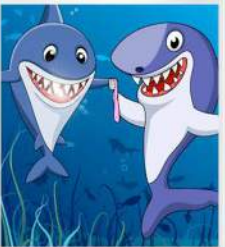

"Oh no! Your shark teeth are filthy again." Mom shouts.

Shark's mom is brushing his teeth.

"Shark! Your sharp teeth are so shiny now!" Mom shouts.

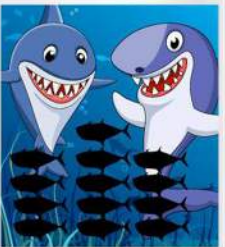

Shark is drinking the shake.

"Shark, could you let me brush your sharp teeth if I fed you thirteen fish?" asks Mom.

"No! I will not let you brush them for thirteen fish," said Shark.

"Shark, could you let me brush your sharp teeth if I fed you three fish?" asks Mom.

"No! I will not let you brush them for three fish," said Shark.

Continue on the next page.

Beginning

Middle

End

