Read the passage from "The Gingerbread Man" below. Add quotation marks and commas where needed.

The fox began to run faster, and the little Gingerbread Boy ran faster, and as he ran he chuckled and said I have run away from a little old woman, a little old man, a cow, a horse, a barn full of threshers, and a field full of mowers, and I can run away from you, I can, I can!

Run, run, run, as fast as you can! You can't catch me, I'm the Gingerbread Man!

Why, said the fox I would not catch you if I could. I would not think of disturbing you.

Just then, the little Gingerbread Boy came to a river. He could not swim across, and he wanted to keep running away from the cow and the horse and the people.

Jump on my tail, and I will take you across the river said the fox.
