

Main Lesson Book:

Goods and Services Review Assignment

- In the box below, draw a picture from the story, "The Fisherman and His Wife."
- On the next pages, retell the story in your own words.

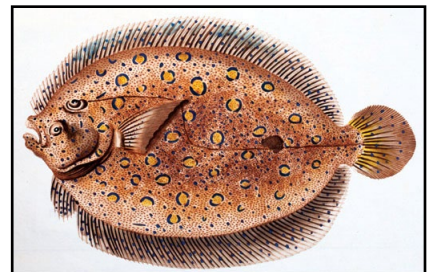

Name: _____

1. Retell the story, "The Fisherman and His Wife" in your own words on the lines below.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of solid top and bottom lines with a dashed middle line. The page contains 10 sets of these lines for writing practice.

Continue on the following page.

2. What "goods" in the story did the wife desire?

3. What "services" in the story did the wife desire?

4. The wife received more and more, but was she ever happy?

5. Write your own version of the, "The Fisherman and His Wife" by finishing the sentence below.

If I was granted all the goods I desire, I would wish for...

6. In the box below, draw pictures of the goods you would wish for. ↴

Continue on the following page.

7. Finish the sentence below.

If I was granted all the services I desire, I would wish for...

Continue on the following page.

8. In the box below draw pictures of the services you would wish for. 