

Student Name:

Clinton's Conflicts Overseas

During Bill Clinton's first term as president, he dealt with two major conflicts: the Somali Civil War in Africa, and the Bosnian War in Eastern Europe. As you saw in this lesson, Clinton's responses to those conflicts are similar in some ways and different in other ways. Use the chart below to explore those similarities and differences. Fill each column with complete sentences representing your knowledge of the two conflicts.

	The Somali Civil War	The Bosnian War
Background
Reasons for American Involvement
The Decisive American Action
Success or Failure?
