Student Name:

Foreign Affairs Comparisons

Review the lessons in this course that describe the administrations of the nation's first three presidents, recalling how each president handled issues that arose between the United States and other countries. Then use the table below to record the three leaders' approaches to foreign policy. For instance, in the columns beside President Washington, describe the main problem that Washington faced with Britain and with Spain and then describe his approach to solving the problem.

| PRESIDENT               | COUNTRY | SOURCE OF THE PROBLEM | PRESIDENT'S APPROACH TO SOLVING THE PROBLEM |
|-------------------------|---------|-----------------------|---|
| PresidentWashington | Britain |                       |   |
|                         | Spain   |                       |   |
| PresidentAdams      | France  |                       |   |

Student Name:

Foreign Affairs Comparisons President Tripoli Jefferson France Britain

| Student Name:  |  |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|--|--|
| Foreign Affairs Comparisons  |  |  |  |  |
| Now answer these questions, which ask you to compare and contrast the three leaders' approaches to foreign policy.   |  |  |  |  |
| 1. In your opinion, which President had the best approach for conducting foreign affairs? Explain why you think so.  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
| 2. In your opinion, which president had the worst approach for conducting foreign affairs? Explain why you think so. |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |