

Student Name:

Making Change

DIRECTIONS: Think of a technological or societal change that you would like to see happen in your lifetime. Then, using the documents you've studied in this lesson, draw conclusions about specific events that could lead to this change taking place. Back up your statements with evidence from, "Six Things You Never Knew about Television," "Laughing Together, Alone," "The Power of Speaking Up," or an excerpt from the Americans with Disabilities Act.

1. What technological change or social change would you like to see in your lifetime? Why?
 2. What conclusions can you draw about the events or factors that might lead to this change taking place?
 3. What evidence from the informational texts we've studied in this lesson supports your conclusions about how change actually happens in society?
