

About 2 Cool

Bill and Fiona have been captivating and delighting audiences for years across a large portion of the country and overseas. Their experience has created an exciting, diverse, adaptable performance for almost any audience. The majority of their performance calendar has customarily been filled with return engagements to venues that ask for them back time after time, year after year. Most recently they have been based in the Charleston, SC area where they have become one of the Low Country's top working acts. Bill and Fiona don't just play and sing. They entertain! They are excellent at interacting with their audiences, enabling them to create and sustain a party atmosphere. 2 Cool is now, once again, available for travel and extended engagements.

Fiona Phillips

Fiona began her musical journey in St. Louis, Mo. singing in school plays and talent shows. Always the performer, she studied voice and piano while performing in local musical theater groups for children and teens. She got a taste of pop & rock while still in high school and began performing with a very successful wedding band, entertaining at receptions all over the St. Louis area. She branched out to the night club venues, singing and playing keyboards with several cover bands in the area. After moving to Ann Arbor, MI, Fiona worked with several original and cover bands, until she finally had an audition with Bill Cool, who would take her on their musical adventure. After teaming up with Bill, Fiona finally got her chance to shine in front of audiences all over the country and overseas.

Fiona is a versatile singer, with an extensive range. She can cover material from soft pop hits to rock & roll – musical theater to R & B style - country to standards. She switches from piano to guitar with ease. Her musical influences are diverse – from Janis Joplin, Heart, Linda Ronstadt, Bonnie Raitt to the new sounds of Adele, Sara Barellies, Lady Gaga, and more.
