

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: COURT DATE FOR BISCUITS AND BLUES THIS FRIDAY—PLEASE ATTEND IF YOU LIVE IN THE BAY AREA

Hello blues fans, blues lovers, and blues musicians! There will be a VERY IMPORTANT hearing taking place with regards to the nationally renowned blues club Biscuits and Blues ! Can you please attend this hearing on Friday, January 24 at The San Francisco Superior Court, 400 McAllister St. (at Polk), 5th Floor, room 501 at 9:30 AM.! It can be a huge deciding factor. Biscuits and Blues will again make its case against the giant corporation Jack in the Box and ask them to fix their plumbing problem so that the club can resume business. We need your help! Word is Jack in the Box as a defense is saying to the court that the club is not important—that it is essentially an unused space. Well Biscuits and Blues has been in business for 24 years and has been an employer of some of the greatest talents on the international blues scene. Biscuits and Blues is part of our culture here in the San Francisco/Bay Area. Your presence in the courtroom will state that this club matters to us all.

ABOUT BISCUITS AND BLUES:

Biscuits and Blues is committed to providing blues fans of all ages with a comfortable, intimate and exciting venue to enjoy fantastic live blues music in tandem with outstanding Southern cuisine. Now, twenty-four years later, Biscuits and Blues is one of the top blues clubs in the nation. They offer San Francisco's best in national and regional blues acts while showcasing award-winning Southern cuisine.

Location:

Biscuits and Blues is located at 401 Mason St. at Geary in the heart of San Francisco's theater district. They are just one block from the world-famous Union Square, several cable car lines, and within walking distance of the Powell Street Bart Station. They are also easily accessible by both the Golden Gate Bridge and the Oakland Bay Bridge.

Every time a national blues club closes, musicians lose work. If you want blues in the Bay Area to thrive, we need clubs like Biscuits and Blues to stay in business. ATTEND THE HEARING!

No big corporation has the right to destroy a neighboring business.
