Bio (75 words)

Multi instrumentalist, arranger and recording artist A.J. Leonard is one of Australia's pioneer ukulele players and is highly regarded to be among the best in the world. “My number one hobby is listening to music and (through that) I’ve gained a greater appreciation of the past .....its influence on me as a writer and arranger and of course the ukulele draws it all together.” The ukulele has become his muse, the key that unlocks the door to creativity.
