

DARKEST BEFORE THE DAWN

Hey, my love - don't you cry
Nights are long, and days go by...
Prison life - it cuts so deep
I love you girl, you see, it's you and me...

And hey, my love - don't you weep
Angels watchin' while you sleep...
Dream of us together -
No troubled times, or stormy weather...

A year - since we last kissed
Your tenderness is what I miss...
Since, I've been gone.

It's always the darkest before the dawn.
It's always the darkest before the dawn.

Hey, my love - give me a smile
'Cause I've been lovin' you all the while...
I know someday - I'll be free
I hope that day, you'll marry me...
And we'll be one.

With fire and passion - in every kiss
Not knowin' love could be like this...
Baby, hold on -

It's always the darkest before the dawn.
It's always the darkest before the dawn.

Before the dawn -

When I feel...

Hey my love - don't you cry

It's always the darkest before the dawn.
It's always the darkest before the dawn.
