

The Best Is Yet to Come

©Written by Gregory W. Broome, May 7, 2012

Moses told the children of Israel come on and follow me.
I'll lead you to a land of milk and honey.
We will leave all the cares and trouble of this Egypt land.
And dwell in the land of promise prepared by God's own hand.

Oh, the best is yet to come, when we step on heaven's shore.
We'll say good bye to sorrow. We won't suffer anymore.
He'll wipe our eyes. Calm our fears. No more worries about life down here.
Church you better get ready the best is yet to come.

Soon we'll cross over Jordan River and receive our reward.
A crown of life is waiting for all who have endured.
Walk hand in hand with loved ones down the streets of gold.
And sit and talk forever with the saints of old.

Chorus

He'll wipe our eyes. Calm our fears. No more worries about life down here.
Church, you better get ready the best is yet to come. Church, you better get ready the best is yet to come.