

God Never Fails

© Gregory W. Broome, June 5, 2012

I woke up this morning ready for my day.
Will this be another struggle? What will come my way?
Everywhere I turn there's trouble and despair.
But thru the disappointments there's only one who seems to care.

Chorus

He'll never fail. He'll answer your call;
When the storms of life are raging, if on your knees you'll fall.
The answers around the corner, just hold on to His word.
For every promise that was spoken, every word of it is yours.

Often times Satan waits till God brings you through.
He kicks you when you're down and you feel alone and frail.
But my God has cleared the path. Praise His holy name.
Just stand upon His word for you shall prevail.

When things all around you seem to fall apart,
When you've done everything and you're still troubled in your heart,
Try standing on His word. Child, He'll never let you down.
For He will always answer and give you strength to stand.

Chorus

Tag: For every promise that was spoken, every word of it is yours.