Tasting Notes:

The Inaugural release...2017 Lord Sandwich Blanc. A blend of our gorgeous tank fermented Russian River Valley Sauvignon Blanc with a few barrels of our Dutton Ranch Chardonnay and a generous splash of refreshing Verdelho from the Contra Costa AV.

Much like our Lord Sandwich Red Table Wine, our new Lord Sandwich Blanc is a "seriously fun wine to drink". We've been asked for months to produce a white wine that goes well with a Sandwich...true story!

We put our heads together last harvest and planned to use the RRV Sauvignon Blanc as the base wine in this blend. As we began to spread the word to vintner friends, the Meeker family introduced us to a beautiful Verdelho wine. A juicy and bright wine with streaks of key-lime and passion fruit. After a few blending sessions in our cellar, the end result also included our 2016 Dutton Ranch Chardonnay...a couple of barrels that had been aging in neutral Burgundy oak for over a year. This addition added another magical layer to the Lord Sandwich Blanc.

Have some real fun with this one, we are thrilled to have another Lord Sandwich offering that will help raise awareness for www.socksforsandwich.org #givingisfun!
