I'm so tired of only knowing

4

Where I am but never going where I need

1

And the door is always open

4

But the other side just isn't calling me

6-

Is it just the fear of falling

3-

4

or the worry that I might find wings to fly

6-

5

4

could it be my destiny is waiting for the moment I decide

CHORUS

I'm going to ride, with no worries where I'm going

6-

4

1

on the breeze, whichever way it's blowing

6-

5

4

Like a ray of sunshine winding through the trees

6-

knowing how it feels to be free

1

I'm going to ride

Now my nights are filled with wonder

Looking forward to the dawning of each day

Awakened from my slumber

It won't be long and I'll be on my way

Will I find what I was looking for or will I simply find another dream

the future waits for no one and what will be will surely be
