

NORTH DAKOTA POLKA

By Kittyko

©2010 Kristin Kitko

www.kittyko.com

The polka originated in the middle of the 19th century;
From Czechoslovakia, Lithuania, Poland, and Germany;
Eventually it crossed the sea to North Dakota;
Young and old, yah, lift their feet to the 1-2 beat of the

Polka, polka, polka in North Dakota;
Left-right-left; Right-left-right;
Great Granny Annie gonna show ya!

Polka, polka, polka in North Dakota
Left-right-left; Right-left-right;
Little Lena Lang gonna show ya!

Oompah, oompah goes the polka; can you feel the drum?
And the horn you hear's a tuba, plus accordion;
You can move your arms and twirl your partner all around;
Or dance all on your own; lift your feet to the 1-2 beat of the

Polka, polka, polka in North Dakota
Left-right-left; Right-left-right;
Great Granny Annie gonna show ya!

Polka, polka, polka in North Dakota
Left-right-left; Right-left-right;
Little Lena Lang gonna show ya!