Warren Byrd Truth Raised Twice

Description

This album--a straight-ahead jazz manifesto--cooks after 20 years on a back burner--a grand release of stellar pianist/composer Warren Byrd's self-produced late-20th Century testament of Greater-NYC jazz in Southern New England. A burnin' montage of esteemed standards and evocative originals from Byrd's pen gingered by Warren's Monk-kissed hard-swinging piano, a carousel of killin' cohorts--including bassist Stephen King Porter and sounds from celebrated saxophonists Kris Allen and Johnathan Ball--"Truth Raised Twice" buffets a post-modern bebop dish of diverse and sincere vibes to get us right.

Warren Byrd, Piano (all tracks); Kris Allen, Alto Sax (#11, 12); Johnathan Ball, Tenor (#2) and Soprano Saxes (#5); Steven Porter, Bass (Except #10); Tom Pietrychia, Bass; Michael Scott, Drums (#1, 2, 5, 7, 9); Tido Holtkamp, Drums (#3, 4, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13); Tony Leone, Drums (#10)

Engineered by Andy (6/99) and Bill Ahearn (11/97); Recorded at Tapeworks, Hartford, CT; Manufactured by Disc makers, Pennsauken, NJ, US; Produced by Warren Byrd, Byrdspeak Productions; c 2000 Byrdspeak All Rights Reserved
