

The Kingston News of to-day states that yesterday the ground was broken in the neighborhood of the Grand Trunk Depot, at that place, in commencement of the branch railway from the station into the city of Kingston proper.

March 25 1858
Worthwell P. 107