

Globe Dec 1 1908

Two engines thrown off tracks Bethany last night

A freight train going east went in a siding to allow a westbound freight to pass. The van of the eastbound train however was left foul, that is stood on the main line. The westbound freight which had two engines ran into the van with the result that the van was thrown off the track and both engines of the westbound were derailed – three injured.