(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Teeswater, Sept. 27.—The C. P. R. roundhouse and the W. R. Thompson Company's sawmill, the one at the southern extremity, and the other near the north end of the town, were burned to the ground on Saturday night. About 10.55 o'clock the roundhouse, a frame structure, was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was turned in and there was a quick response of the fire brigade, but in a few minutes the whole building was wrapped in flames, and all that could be done was to prevent it from spreading. In this the fire-fighters were successful. A freight engine that had come in a few hours before was destroyed, and a snowplough standing on the track was scorched. This is the third roundhouse to be burned on this site. It was a substantial building, erected two years ago to replace one destroyed by lightning. There is no accounting for the fire. By 1 o'clock the fire had burned out, and a number of men were detailed to watch if other fires should be started by the millions of cinders that had fallen all over the town.

At 2.30 a.m. fire was seen at the
