
KINGSTON.

Sad Death of a Female Lunatic Kingston and Pembroke Railway—Rectory, of Belleville.

A female patient in Rockwood Asylum tried to escape from an upper story yesterday, and fell a distance of 60 feet, and was taken up dead.

The first locomotive has arrived for the Kingston and Pembroke Railway, and the last cargo of iron rails is in.

The Bishop of Ontario has appointed the Rev. J. W. Barke, of Prescott, to the rectorship of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Kingston.
