

Diene Harper Becomes Mrs. A. C. Marble Jr.

VIKSBURG — The chapel of All Saints Episcopal school was the setting for the wedding of Miss Helen Nadine (Diene) Harper, daughter of Mrs. Fred Arthur Harper, to the Rev. Alfred Clark (Chop) Marble Jr., son of Mrs. E. Percy Bartum and the late Mr. Marble.

The Rev. Alex D. Dickson Jr., rector and headmaster of All Saints, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. David Elliott Jr. served as acolyte. Music was presented by Mrs. E. M. Garrison, of Oxford, violinist, and Miss Phyllis Linton of Oxford, organist.

Mrs. James Yount attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Ellington, Miss Laura Owens of Jackson and Miss Debra Heron of Sandy Hook.

The attendants wore gowns of formal length of their own choice and carried lace handkerchiefs.

Best man for the bridegroom was the Rev. Ed Morrison of Oxford. Groomsmen and ushers were the Rev. Cecil Jones of West Point, the Rev. David Elliott and the Rev. Charles Henry of Canton, La.

Decorated by the bride, William Lee Harper, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of champagne silk with a full-length train. The bride carried a bouquet of carnations, pink roses and pink carnations.

The bride and Mrs. E. Percy Bartum entertained the wedding party, family and guests with a rehearsal dinner on the night of the wedding at the Magnolia Inn. On the day of the wedding, Holy Eucharist was celebrated at All Saints' chapel followed by Miss Phyllis Linton entertaining by singing and playing the piano.

William H. Carter Weds Mary Diane Borthwick
The church of Broadmeadow United Methodist church was the setting for the evening marriage of Miss Mary Diane Borthwick and William Harold Carter. Parents of the couple were Mrs. J. James Fleming Borthwick and the late Mr. Borthwick, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Melton Carter of Laurel.

The Rev. Warren Pittman officiated at the ceremony before 400 guests and an arrangement of gold and white flowers. A gold and white bouquet with silver accents completed the scene. Music was presented by Miss Betty Kelley, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, James Fleming Borthwick, wore a Grecian gown of imported silk jersey designed with a high rise waistline accented with seed pearls featuring a draped V-neckline. The waist-length veil of silk fillet fell from a Juliet cape of imported silk, gauze and re-embroidered aluminum lace accented with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of tulips, sweethearts, roses and baby's breath.
