

Life
(Richard and Maureen Hall)

E

Floating safely in the womb - Peaceful, quiet, little room
All you need, all your food - Delivered through a windy tube

A

It starts to move, you hear a sound - Serious shit is going down

Hanging on for dear life - Freezing cold, blinding light

B7

Staring at some guy in a mask - Turns your over and slaps your ass

Oh no, they cut the tube - You come into life singing the blues

Life gets better bit by bit - You start to get the hang of it
Just a moan, a practiced cry - Mom and Dad there by your side
No worry about anything - Just eat, sleep, shit, and dream
Just when life is getting cool - They tell you it's time to go to school
You learn about rules, learn the word no - Learn what it means to be in trouble
Those early days of bliss are through - Go through childhood singing the blues

Adolescence comes on quick - Hit you in the head like a cement brick
Voice is changing, hair is growing - Pimples popping, hormones flowing
Parents and teachers are so naive - Only you and your friends can truly see
Girls you used to bug and tease - You start to chase like a dog in heat
They turn you down, break your heart - Everyone's so stupid, and you're so smart
Your mind is spinning, the world's confused - Adolescents sing the blues

Growing old, life starts to fade - Losing hair, gaining age
Finally leave home and school - No parents, teachers, or stupid rules
Just when you think you've reached the top - You have to go out and get a job
Money and bills, barely squeaking by - Day to day, nine to five
Retirement comes, but by that time - You've lost your body, lost your mind
As you come into the world, you leave it too - Go out of life singing the blues
