

Broken Angel (Richard and Maureen Hall)

E A
Little girls, perfect worlds, sugar and spice, all that's nice

E B
someone to love you every day

E A
But the only one who held you tight, was the one who haunts your dreams at night,

E B E
makes you want to fly away

(chorus)

A E A E
Fly away broken angel, into these loving arms

B E B E
I will fix you, protect you from harm

E-A-E-B

E A E B
I saw the light in your eyes, I saw the pain deep inside

E A E B E
I fell in love that day, when I saw you fly away

(chorus)

I know that you will always feel, wounds that deep don't never heal,
But you and I, we're living for today
Life moves on no matter what we do, as I grow more in love with you.
Together we'll fly away
