

Felicia Rose is a traveling muse who leads kirtan and sacred music concerts nationally and abroad.

With deep love and explosive passion for the Divine, Felicia soothes and uplifts audiences with her angelic voice and joyful energy.

In 1996 she lived in India just after having reconstructive surgery on her hips. Deep in the jungle under a banyan tree she learned the art of yoga and sacred kirtan chanting!

She is an advocate for sound healing! Living for years with chronic pain, she has found ultimate relief and release in singing!

As a touring musician Felicia performs at a vast array of venues, from unity churches, acoustic clubs, yoga studios, wellness and sacred music festivals.

Physical challenges led Felicia to her spiritual path, when walking became an issue she swam, this brought her in contact with wild dolphins and whales who blessed her with messages of song.

Felicia has 5 fully produced cd's as well as 4 less produced recordings. All are deeply drenched with spiritual messages with music ranging from world beat, funky soul, to sweet luscious ballads.

Her most recent CD and Official Music Video "Tides are Turning", is a collection of English songs mixed with Sanskrit to celebrate the life, love and teachings of her Guru.

"Raise the Vibration" was released in 2015 earning Felicia much attention from the Bhakti community.

Devoted to the path of Surat Shabd Yoga, a meditation practice focused on the Inner Sound Current.

Felicia's passion is sharing the healing properties of sound and awareness of higher consciousness through music!
