

You're Amazing © Martin Kerr 2018

Verse 1:

One day, we'll be looking back on this and we'll say:
Aren't you happy that we did it our way?
Everyone we knew was saying 'no way!'
But we were never listening anyway,
So don't be just standing in the doorway
Don't you know we gotta hit the highway
Darling this is gonna be a good day, and I've gotta say that

Chorus: I'm not bad myself but you're amazing! You're amazing.

Verse 2:

One day, I'll be looking back on this and
I'll say: I'm so happy that you said you would stay
There were times I know that I was crazy
Fraying at the edges and you saved me,
I'm losing count of chances that you gave me
You're laughing at me dancing really badly
Telling me the reasons why you'd gladly do it all again, 'cause

Chorus: I'm not bad myself but you're amazing! You're amazing.

Verse 3:

Well hey, words could never adequately convey
Everything you're giving to me today
But holding you is better than a holiday
Leaving you I dread it like exam day
And at the risk of sounding kinda risqué
Everything to now has been the foreplay
Darling I would follow you to Norway or anywhere you wanted, 'cause

Chorus: I'm not bad myself but you're amazing! You're amazing.

Outro:

One day, when we're getting wrinkly and our hair's gray
A rusty old banger in the driveway
One of us'll maybe wear a toupee
And I will be in love with you...
