

Chase Potter

Creative Musical Artist

chasepottermusic@gmail.com

740-506-2365

Employment

- Sole Proprietor of Chase Potter Music, 2007-Present
- Freelance professional musician, 2007-Present
- Violinist and bassist at Silver Arrow Band, 2013-Present
- Provide private lessons on violin, guitar, and bass, 2011-Present
- Teaching Assistant at Mark O' Connor camp, through Berklee College of Music, summer 2013
- Student Employment through Berklee College of Music, 2011-2015

Awards and Notable Performances by Year

2018

- Played violin for shock-rock band Granny 4 Barrel as part of the Year Of The Bull Tour featuring Texas Hippie Coalition and Kobra And The Lotus
- Toured again with Granny 4 Barrel with Nekrogoblikon and CKY

2017

- Featured violin soloist with Wynton Marsalis at Jazz at Lincoln Center for performance of Duke Ellington's "Black, Brown, and Beige" suite
- Violinist with Pink Martini at Brooklyn Academy of Music in Brooklyn, NY
- Appeared as band guitarist in season finale of the HBO show The Deuce, playing "96 Tears" by Garland Jeffries

2016

- Performed in violin duo on The Tonight Show with Machine Gun Kelly and Camilla Cabello for their hit song, "Bad Things"

2015

- Graduated Berklee College of Music Summa Cum Laude with Bachelor of Music degree in violin performance
- Performed in string ensemble with indie group Belle and Sebastian at Wex-Fest in Columbus, OH

2014

- Accepted into Acoustic Music Seminar for second consecutive year

2013

- Accepted as one of 16 players into Acoustic Music Seminar as a part of the Savannah Music Festival to take part in workshops led by Mike Marshall, Julian Lage, and David Grisman.
- Traveled with Berklee College of Music President Roger Brown, and Berklee alumni Catie Offerman, to perform at the John Jarrard Songwriting Festival in Gainesville, Georgia
- Performed in string ensemble with indie group Belle and Sebastian at Bunbury Festival in Cincinnati, OH

2012

- Performed in string ensemble with Lalah Hathaway at Berklee Performance Center

2011

- Given Louis Armstrong Jazz Award at high school alma mater
- Awarded Presidential Scholarship to Berklee College of Music

2010

- Toured Lima, Peru with Columbus Youth Jazz Orchestra and special guest Wess "Warmdaddy" Anderson
- Selected to attend 2010 Berklee Five Week on full scholarship as part of the Jazz Workshop with Rick DiMuzio and Terri Lyne Carrington

2009

- Winner of Hank Marr Ohio High School Jazz Competition
- Featured as solo jazz violinist with Columbus Jazz Orchestra at The Southern Theater, Columbus, OH

Studio Work

- Recorded on violin, guitar, bass, drums, mandolin, vocals, sax, percussion, piano
- Recorded for artists such as Louis Futon, Duckwrth, Cale Hawkins, Caleb Hawley, Chameleon Culture, Allegra Krieger, and Safety Squad

Musical Education and Camps/Workshops

- Attended Berklee College of Music on Presidential Scholarship 2011-2015
- Selected to take part in Acoustic Music Seminar in 2013 and 2014
- Attended Berklee Five Week in 2010 on full scholarship
- Attended Belmont University String Crossings Camp in 2009
- Attended Christian Howes' Creative Strings Camp in 2007, 2008, 2009, 2012, and was an assistant teacher 2013
- Has been performing publicly since age five
- Five years in Columbus, Ohio Youth Jazz Program playing sax, violin, and drums
- School band from grades 6-12 on alto, tenor, and bari saxes, and also bassoon
- Self-taught and proficient on guitar, bass, drums, mandolin, and has performed publicly on all

- Saxophone lessons from ages 11-18
- Has played and studied violin since age 4

Endorsements

- Ned Steinberger
- EarthQuaker Devices

Non-Musical Skills

Creative writer, basic video editing knowledge, basic recording studio knowledge, skateboarding, baseball