

hold hold hold on tight tiny pieces of my big heart over mountains high under raining stars

it's weighing heavy on the heart
but there's a stirring inside that's gonna hold me to the line
i feel a rise in me
part will, part love
it's just a part of this life your love is gonna be enough visions fill my dreams paining every part can i rest with you whoever you are

it's weighing heavy on the heart
part will, part love

i see you sparkle in the eyes transcending time a little light within the dark a little peace within the mind
