

oh let's begin again this is not the kind of thing that you can try to say with words of weak or of uncertain intention all that i can do is try and tell my love to you how much can you say with one small phrase without divine word intervention oh i've only been here one small second sitting by myself and i whisper in the air and to the pictures on my shelf and even after only just one moment talking in my head trying to express my love for you sitting on my bed

oh i realize there's nothing I can say that my words will fall like petals from my face into a field of thoughts i've wondered if you knew there's nothing i can say
...just that i wrote this song for you...

overcast and bitter sweet or sunny, or at night when the moon is out, and glowing on us shining all our light it is only ever something i would sing because i might speak it wrong and i never knew what gracious meant until i felt this love and i still don't understand how we're addicted like a drug that people take and take and take when if you leave it it is not a drug all

but i feel this love in everything i do and this life's so beautiful i can't express
there's nothing i can say
...just that i wrote this song for you...
