

Justin Ryan picked up the guitar when he was 12 years old and has been playing and writing music ever since. Growing up in a musical family, and tagging along to his sisters voice recitals and auditions, Justin took in everything, making him the musician he is today. He grew up listening to classical music, his mothers vinyl albums, pop radio, and whatever else he could get his hands on. In high school Justin began playing in his first band "The Admiral", and was also very involved in concert choir and musical theater.

After high school, Justin reunited with his band mates and formed the four piece acoustic rock band "All Together Spent." After signing a management deal, the band toured the east coast for about 5 years and were then presented with a unique opportunity to travel the world playing for troops as a part of an Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE) tour. To be able to travel and play familiar music for troops abroad was a great experience for Justin.

In 2008 Justin decided to make a move to NYC and while there, he wrote, and self produced his first solo album "Off Course" which was received well by listeners.

All Together Spent disbanded in 2010 which led to the formation of the Rock Duo, Ryful (Jon Fuller and Justin Ryan). Ryful released its first album "High Caliber" in February 2012, which was also produced by Justin Ryan. Some of the Ryful's and Justin's most notable performances have been opening for national acts such as, Better Than Ezra, Scott Wieland (Frontman of STP), Third Eye Blind, and Ed Kowalczyk (Lead Singer of Live).

While being involved in his many band projects, Justin has most recently been writing, recording and producing many new songs that he hopes to put on full album within the next year. Justin has most recently joined the Nashville Songwriters Association International (NSAI) and has had a few original songs evaluated by pros thus far. To date Justin has had 8 songs that have made the "Ones To Watch" list of NSAI. He makes frequent trips to Nashville to pitch songs to publishers and to network. He also enjoys co-writing with fellow songwriters.

Most recently Justin started the The Justin Ryan Band which consists of Justin, Guthrie Matthews, Jesse Masone, and Jon Fuller. He hopes to showcase his own music as well as modern country rock covers with his new band!

Justin resides on the Eastern Shore of Maryland with his beautiful wife Annie and their 3 children Carys, Kellen, and Arden.
