

ANNIE WOODE

Christian Music. Inspirational, easy listening.
Pop style with a soft lyrical vibe

Originally from Sierra Leone but now resident in the UK, Annie Woode has had a love for music since her childhood. She only started singing in public however, when she joined the Gospel Youth Singers. She was encouraged there to develop her Christian music ministry.

She continues to sing in choral groups, but has in the past few years, been actively involved in writing her own gospel music. Her Music style can best be described as contemporary Christian Music. It has an integrated Pop/R&B/Easy listening sound to it. Her choral background is often apparent in the arrangements. Although many of her compositions deal with the Christian Walk, she also writes songs on social issues, love and life.

She has produced two Christian Music albums for general release. Greatest War and He's Always There. Her most recent EP is Love Is A Cross. She also has two singles, Blood Covers Me and Impossible Dream remix.

Her main desire with her music is to use it to share God's love with others.

She continues to share God's love in her chosen career as a nurse and is currently working on a number of singles. She is also collaborating at present, to develop a program aimed at helping children below 16, who are being held in remand in Sierra Leone.
