

SONiA disappear fear

new album

Small House No Secrets

available NOW

SONiA (Rutstein) disappear fear released her highly anticipated 19th CD By My Silence less than a year ago, in January 2019. Now she's back with an intimate solo recording, the Composer's Cut of her first musical Small House No Secrets.

An intimate solo recording, OUT Nov 7, 2019

Liz is already unraveling when she and her boyfriend Harry arrive at her cousin Eric's for Thanksgiving dinner. Expecting a marriage proposal, Liz enlists Eric's help in deflecting the question, but bigger questions arise when a stranger stopping by turns out to be the lesbian ex-lover Liz wasn't ready for in her freshman year of college.

Co-written by SONiA with Jody Nusholtz and premiered at the Baltimore Playwrights Festival in March 2019, Small House No Secrets is now accessible to listeners worldwide as a limited edition CD release as well as a digital download, both available exclusively via soniadisappearfear.com. On this Composer's Cut version, SONiA herself sings all the different parts, with background vocals by Laura Cerulli and accompanied on piano by Tony Correlli.

SONiA has performed in 20 countries and will tour Australia and New Zealand from December 2019 to February 2020 before returning to Europe for concerts in spring 2020.
