

THE BRIGHTS

WHAT FOLKS ARE SAYING

ABOUT THE DUO

Drop everything but your drawers and go see this group!

Robert Rountree, fan

A couple of musical powerhouses... charismatic charm... experienced, gifted, original and extremely likeable.

With Bray on vocals, guitar (fingerstyle acoustic and Weissenborn slide) and Wright supplying vocals, cello, accordion and rhythmic wizardry, the two-hour show literally flew by.

The easy-going pair took turns being featured and introducing the songs, with the other providing the utmost in sensitive and capable back-up.

It's not that easy to describe their material other than to say there was nothing resembling a weak or lackluster moment in either of their sets. The pacing was spot-on.

...jaw-dropping.

Jim Sinclair, Castlegar News (BC)

It's stellar, it's really nice to see quality out there... [they] work together so well, it's such a treat to hear those instruments together... the subtleties, the gorgeous subtleties of every little nuance!

Longevity John, owner, Duncan Garage Showroom (BC)

A wonderful performance. The best way I could think to open my new venue!

Brigitte Faramin, owner, 2nd Street Studio B (BC)

Some phenomenal talent! ...an evening of pure entertainment.

SNAP South Simcoe (ON)

One of the best Sessions I've ever seen!

Chip Veinotte, Lunenburg Sessions (NS)

It really touched my soul – your music reached deep down.

Bill Kayelich, owner, Crumbs Cafe (NB)

A pair of wonderfully entertaining performers who bring a unique rich sound. This is the second time we have welcomed The Brights -- they are so good we extended our season to make sure we didn't miss them.

Vince Morash, Rose & Kettle Sessions (NS)

ABOUT Live Love Dream

I've listened to the Brights' Live Love Dream several times, now, and each time it was over too soon. The thoughtful lyrics and musicality of the compositions and accompaniments engaged me fully and made the time fly too quickly. Creative, unique approach (and unique is good!). Highly recommended.

David Joyce, Newmarket Folk Society

This album is your perfect Sunday morning music – thoughtful, heart-ful and hopeful lyrics combined with strong, well-performed instrumentation that stays on the mellow side, for the most part.

While having lots in common with many contemporary folk music productions, this cd also has that lovely singularity that makes playing it over and over a real probability.

A dynamic sympathy between these (usually solo performer) singer-songwriters has produced the best kind of collaboration. They sail.

Susan Braedley, Take Note Music Store fan review

WOW! I heard you guys on CBC the other day and was absolutely blown away.
