

DONALD TRUMP WINS AS THE AMERICAN "SOLAR HERO" NOT AS THE CHINESE LUNAR "GROUND DOG"

@CNNPolitics refers to "EARTH DOG" Donald Donald J. Trump but SKIPS reference to "EARTH PIG" Hillary Clinton <http://cnn.it/20iE7IE>

WHY THEY PICKED A CHINESE FORTUNE TELLER?

As you can read below, as early as 31st January 2016 I initiated a series of posts showing how the Law of Number acts shaping World Affairs, in particular the onset of United States Elections bound to have such a huge impact on the World as a whole.

In one of them I used the phrase "it's written in the stars" in the title of a detailed analysis in which I used Donald Trump's natal, progressed and solar return charts as well as his Unique Numeric Sequence based on the Science of Time and Number disclosed in our book "Gates of Time Windows of Opportunity".

CNN is sending apparently three reporters to Hong Kong to interview a Chinese fortune teller about the outcome of 2016 US Elections.

The good thing about this is that it shows how sciences like Astrology are being quickly redeemed from the realm of "pseudo-sciences" and acknowledged as valid tools to explain the causes of upcoming events.

The bad thing is that it establishes not Astrology but, in particular, Chinese astrology as a basis for determining the outcome of U.S. Elections.

CNN Politics is a highly respectable source of information read by billions of people worldwide. Their choice of WHAT TO PRESENT, WHERE AND WHEN (Time and Place) is MEANINGFUL. So how should we read their choice in this matter?

All this has the appearance of a payback to Donald Trump on account of his reiterated position in regards to China (one of the strongest points during the last debate). To the careful reader, the choice of a Chinese fortune-teller is not a matter of "luck" or "chance". Chinese horoscope uses different zodiac signs of Western cultures. And it uses ANIMALS ONLY, there are no human signs like Sagittarius, Aquarius or Gemini. And Mr. Trump's natal SUN is in Gemini - essentially a human sign.

When they quote the Chinese fortune-teller, the Reporters are very selective on one respect: "She says the new lunar year will fuel good fortune for "earth dog" Donald Trump, while also lighting a fire under Hillary Clinton." Why did they choose not to write "earth pig" Hillary Clinton since this is what she is in the Chinese horoscope?

This brings us back to the fundamental question: WHY the Chinese Horoscope, WHY the Chinese New Year? What has the way Chinese reckon time have to do with the way Time is counted in the United States and the World. True they are the most numerous nation in today's world and also great manufacturers, but Donald Trump's eventual victory is "written in the Stars" and hardly has anything to do with what he is or is not for the Chinese mindset.

Bottom line: picking a Chinese fortune-teller to suggest that Donald Trump is kind of a "bull in the China shop" as compared to his other "human" competitors, none of whom is directly referred by his Chinese zodiacal attribute as is his case is in BAD TASTE. I wonder whether the next thing they will do is visit an Arabic Parts expert to provide insight into the Election landscape.

Both the Chinese and the Arabs are backed by millennial traditions and can be extremely subtle when it comes to "brainwashing" wide audiences using the media as we point out in our February 2 post on our website (<http://oanganga.com>) which refers to a recent Fox News broadcast.

Conversely, the Sacred Science of Time and Number explained in my book "Gates of Time Windows of Opportunity" is the most ancient and truly complete corpus of science that enables an understanding of GOD'S Supreme Law, The Law of Number. It is not prone to "personal interpretation" and is not the treasured possession of any particular nation or culture. The Science of Number Rediscovered is available for all.
