

Mama's Black Sheep

Hello Everyone,

Happy FALL! Fall is one of the loveliest times of year here in the Mid-Atlantic. We've got a great month of shows for you including some of our favorite venues, co-bills with other great artists, and a few more opportunities to enjoy some music outdoors. See all of the October details below.

NYE Party Update: We still need to sell almost 40 more "Early Bird" tickets in order to lock in the venue for our NYE Celebration at the Sheraton BWI. If you haven't made your NYE plans yet, and you plan to spend it with us, PLEASE get online and get your tickets NOW! In case you missed the event information please CLICK HERE to read all about it!!! Early Bird Ticket deadline is October 15th, please don't delay. (Many thanks to those of you who have already purchased your NYE Tickets!)

Our full line of MBS Fall Merchandise will be in soon!!! We've got new hats, long sleeve tees, and short sleeve tees to choose from. You can see this seasons styles and colors now in our online SHEEP SHOP. All orders will be shipped as soon as the new products are in our hands (which will be within a week or so from now....maybe sooner!).

We are so saddened to hear of the tragic shooting in Las Vegas (hitting us particularly "close to home" since it occurred during a music festival). And we've been heartbroken by the ongoing struggles of our friends and fans who have been impacted by hurricanes Harvey, Irma and Maria. So many have lost their lives, and many more their livelihood, homes, and possessions. If there is any silver lining to these times of crisis, it's that crisis tends to bring people together. Crisis gives us all an opportunity to be our best selves; to show our compassion, our humility, our grace, and our willingness to help others. It can bring us clarity and a chance for a change in perspective. So, we grieve the losses, but we also embrace the challenges that lie ahead, and are grateful for the opportunity to do so. If you are feeling helpless and overwhelmed, then find a way to do something positive. There are so many great organizations that need help right now in the form of monetary donations, supplies, and volunteers. Find a group that feels right for you and do what you can. It's hard to know which organizations are really getting funds and supplies to those in need. Be sure to do a little research before clicking that donate button...here are a couple of sites that can help you find reputable organizations: Charity Watch | Charity Navigator

Many of you have asked if we will be going to St. Croix this winter. While there was some significant damage to the island, the rebuilding efforts are underway. We have talked to a number of friends on the island and at this point we see no reason why we would not be sticking to our planned winter tour schedule!!! We will be on island from Jan 17th - Feb 28th...and you're all invited!!! Now more than ever, the businesses on island will appreciate the economic boost of the busy winter season. Here are a few links for charities specifically to help hurricane victims in Puerto Rico, Dominica, and our beloved St. Croix (as well as the rest of the USVI): Global Giving Hurricane Relief | CARE Fund-STX Foundation

Celebrate each moment and keep it positive y'all....
We hope to see ya soon!
